“Madison Show becoming a must attend event on The Midwest boat show circuit”

by Mark Walters

The 7th annual Madison Area Antique & Classic Boat Show (MAACBS) was blessed with great weather, a wide spectrum of boats, and a record turnout at the show’s festivities. Many skippers also took advantage of the Friday cruise along with the many fun stops on the way. The MAACBS is quickly becoming a must attend event on the Midwest boat show circuit.

On the river cruise over 25 boats endured the pleasant 80 degree weather to tour the Yahara Chain of Lakes. The Madison skyline was spectacular with the mid- morning sun and light winds. Some stunning photographs were taken of the boats as they went past the State Capitol and Monona Terrace Convention Center on Lake Monona. After docking at the Elks’ club, skippers and their mates had lunch and a few beverages to quench their thirst from the morning journey. The afternoon cruise consisted of going through the Tenney locks to Lake Mendota and on to a choice of tours.

Those choosing to take the tour of the UW Porter Boat House were not disappointed. Men's Rowing Coach Chris Clark and Assistant Coach Simon Carcagno provided an inside view of

As the days begin to shorten and we march towards fall, there will have been one last "glorious" event. The ACBS International Boat Show in Lake Geneva will have gone down in history. We partnered with the Blackhawk Chapter to put on this "grand" affair. It will have been the best possible cap to our 2011 boating season. I would have hoped that you were able to take in at least some of the events. This event will go down as attracting more ACBS members from around the country than any past ACBS annual meeting. Over 150 boats were registered.

It has been another exciting year of activities for the GLACBS. The Chapter came together for numerous activities and continues to grow as an organization. It has been refreshing that our events have added new elements to provide attendees with more ways to enjoy their participation. We encourage these ideas to keep coming so our shows continue to garner interest from both new and past participants.

In July, Karl Johns and Sue Schroeder hosted a car and boat event at their home on Okauchee Lake. It was interesting to see the mix of materials (metal, wood, and fiberglass) displayed on both water and land. Having Karl provide me with a glimpse of his treasures was also a real treat. Thanks to Karl and Sue for the hospitality.

August saw the Chapter's two marquee boat shows in full bloom. Both events were highlighted by excellent spectator turnouts and new show activities. The Madison Show featured the annual Yahara River cruise, with a tour of the UW Porter Boat House, along with the display of over 45 boats at Christy's Landing. The story started on page 1. Towards the end of the month, the Pewaukee Show attracted a huge crowd of attendees that thoroughly enjoyed the unique collection of boats, cars, and land attractions. These shows are becoming "must see" events throughout the boat show community. We should all be proud of the direction these shows have taken.

We will be having our year-end banquet on October 28th at the Delafield Brewhaus. Sign up information is on page 6. This event will recap our chapter accomplishments and discuss where we want to go in the coming years. As in years past, this is a great time to interact as an organization and share some laughs with our acquaintances. Speaking of laughs, I've been told that our featured speaker, Thomas Holmes will make the laugh meter reach the breaking point. He's president of The Centuary Boat Club. Because this is our annual meeting, we will be electing some new board members and a Vice-Commodore for the Chapter. If you would like to nominate an individual for these crucial posts, please contact me. I will also be reaching out to individuals as needed.

Although the sunset cruises are becoming numbered at this time of year, there is still plenty of time to get out on the lake and enjoy your craft. Don't procrastinate, however, since the weather can turn quickly in our northern locale. You never know when that last seventy degree day with variable winds will make an appearance.

Get out and enjoy some great fall boating!

Mark Walters
Commodore, GLACBS

NOTE:
At our spring meeting, the chapter voted to raise the dues as of January 1, 2012 to $20.00

the nationally recognized program that predates the beginning of the NCAA. The facility itself had indoor rowing tanks, storage for over 100 boats, and direct access to Lake Mendota. Dating back to the 1800s, the UW Rowing Team is the oldest competitive sport on the UW-Madison campus. A visit to the campus

Would not be complete without enjoying a beverage at the Union Terrace and some hijinks by a few participants reliving their undergraduate days by jumping off the pier in their birthday suits. (See pictures on page 4) The MAACBS will be making the UW-Madison visit an annual part of the show's weekend festivities.

The traditional tour of the Governor's Residence continued to wow the participants. Whether the historical aspects of the artifacts within, actual building architecture, or beautiful flower gardens, the Residence always impresses its visitors. The staff at the Residence are always great with their zeal and hospitality.

As the sun advanced the journey to the West, the tour participants began to motor back down the Yahara River with some pit stops along the way. The beverage stops included the Four Lakes Yacht Club, Bourbon Street, and Beach House. Once back to Christy's Landing, Friday's festivities culminated with a traditional fish fry (along with steak) on the upper deck. Discussions of the day's activities could be heard throughout the dinner and into the night. As typical of the MAACBS tradition, many of the participants continued the conversations well into the night at Christy's Tiki Bar.

Saturday's show began with a stunning sunrise over Lake Waubesa. The boats in the water looked magnificent with reflections shimmering off their hulls. Those able to witness the start to the day knew the boat show was going to set an attendance record. Having most of the boats in the water on Friday made for a quick show setup on Saturday. As the sun was overhead, the public swarmed to see the boats and talk with fellow nautical enthusiasts. Jeff Lindsey's tropical themed music on the patio provided the perfect ambiance for the event. (See pictures on page 4)

The MAACBS prides itself on providing a great and comfortable venue for boat owners to display their treasured boats. This is evidenced by the wide selection of boats at the show. As the years move forward, it is important to recognize that many boats not seen as collectable just a few years ago are becoming rare. Having events that not only allow but embrace these vessels is important for the hobby (along with ACBS and chapter affiliates).

Raising money for the Multiple Sclerosis (MS) Society is the primary goal of the MAACBS. In 2011, the show continued the past tradition of exceeding the prior year's contribution to MS ($4,000+). These efforts, along with the many contributions of other worthwhile events across the country, is the reason a cure for MS is on the horizon. Thanks to all who contributed!

In 2012, the MAACBS will host the show on the first Saturday of August (4th). Tentative plans for the Friday cruise include new tours of the UW's Chazen Art Museum, the Wisconsin Institute of Discovery and/or Union South. Set the dates aside so you can attend in 2012!

A special thanks to the MAACBS Planning Committee. Without all their hard work and dedication, the event would never happen. A thank you also goes out to our show sponsors and attendees. They too are a major reason for the event's success.

*Rod Melotte did an excellent job taking photos of the events. The pictures in this article were taken by Rod. If you would like to view and/or purchase his work, go to rodmelotte.com

GUEST SPEAKER: Thomas Holmes

Thomas Holmes is a active ACBS member and an enthusiast of classic Century boats. Currently he is a director of the ACBS and the President of the Century Boat Club. He lives in Grand Rapids, Michigan with his first mate Cathe.

Thomas is also President of the Century Boat Club. He was born the same year his dad, Leonard Holmes began a long career as an executive with the Century Boat Company in Manistee, MI. Thomas and his family have had the pleasure of owning over 30 different Century boats. Thomas worked after school and summers at the Century factory in the parts department during the early fiberglass days. Subsequently he was involved in many other duties such as catalog photo shoots, test driving, computer technology and boat exports; he also spent time working at a major Century dealer.

His involvement with the Century club has centered around preservation of documents (e.g. catalogs) and distribution of records (e.g. warranty cards) and assisting members with boat certification of authenticity. He and his first mate Catherine can be found at various boat shows across the country when they are not at home in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

EDITORS NOTE: You are in for a treat. I've had the opportunity to hear Thomas talk at various gatherings and symposiums around the country. Be forewarned that he likes to polk fun at Sissy(Chris-Craft) craft owners.

The 7th Annual Eagle River Antique & Classic Boat Show June 17-19, 2011 goes down as another successful event

Carl and Charlene Wussow, Show Directors and Jo Daniel, Site Coordinator put on another wonderful event. The famous Eagle River chain of 28 lakes continues to be a great site for a classic boat show. The event was held on the grounds of the Wild Eagle Lodge on Duck and Lynx Lakes. Newer docks, beautiful grounds and special activities, including special low rates continue to attract classic boat owners from all over the midwest. Most important is the fact that all proceeds from this event will go to the area's Special Athletes.

There was a special new treat this year. Kim and Jet Goluska hosted a Wine and Cheese reception at their historic home located on Our Lady of Sunset Point on Catfish Lake. Attendees toured the former Sisters of Mercy nuns retreat and girl's camp, and took advantage of this famous backdrop for photographing their classic boats next to the 1928 boathouse. Belonging to ACBS and a chapter can give one an opportunity to visit a unique place that one would not normally be able to see. Thank you Kim and Jet.

Most attendees return year after year because it is such a fun event for the entire family. Carl gave special recognition to his wife, Charlene and Jo Daniel for their dedication for the past 7 years to put on a successful and fun event

You can get more background on Kim and Jet Goluska's home and this boat house from Classic BOATING magazine, March/April 2011 Issue #160

ACBS Quarterly Meeting Aboard the Historic "Grand Lady of the Sea" THE QUEEN MARY

Mary and I attended the ACBS quarterly meeting from June 2 thru June 5 and stayed on The Queen Mary, Long Beach California. The board meetings were on the Queen Mary. Rich and Beth Lepping had some other business in California and wanted to attend an ACBS board meeting. They enjoyed the gathering and have made some new friends. On Saturday June 4, we went to The South California Chapter Boat and Car Show at Lake Arrowhead. Lake Arrowhead is 782 acres with an average depth of 100ft. It is absolutely pristine. The lake elevation is 5,108 ft. Mary and I took some extra time to do a Burbank tour, get on the Jay Leno Show, went to The Getty Museum and Universal Studios. And Rich and Beth thought that going to ACBS meetings was all work and no play.
